ACTIVITIES PERTAINING TO SOUTH AFRICA'S TRANSITION TO A DEMOCRACY

In 1992, the South African Communication Service organized a series of workshops with a view to promoting the development of a human rights ethos in South Africa. Participated in the program and delivered lectures on human rights at workshops of a women's organization, held in Potchefstroom on 24/6/92; of Black Church groups representing working youth from several townships in the Western Transvaal, held in Stilfontein on 27/6/92; of students and faculty of the University of Pretoria, held in Pretoria on 21/8/92; of members of the general public of George, held in George on 22/7/92; of students of the Rand Afrikaans University, held in Johannesburg on 2/9/92; of members of the general public of Britz, held in Britz on 25/8/92; and of the general public of Kosmos (Hartebeespoort Dam), held in Kosmos on 28/10/92.

In 1994, the South African Communications Service organized, as part of the voters' education program, a series of lectures to the lay public on the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act 200 of 1993. Conducted lectures as part of this program to senior citizens of the coloured township of Davidsonville, Roodepoort (on 7/2/94); students and teachers of the Helpmekaar Girls High School in Johannesburg (on 10/2/94); Rotarians and Rotary Anns in Randfontein (on 10/2/94); the Indian business community of Roshnee, Vereeniging (on 20/2/94); Telkom workers in Vereeniging (on 1/3/94); and senior personnel of the Gold Mine in Randfontein (on 28/3/94).

Served as a member of the Task Group on the Repeal of Legislation Impeding Free Political Activity as well as Discriminatory Legislation of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process in Kempton Park. Compiled a report, dated 18 October 1993, and a subsequent supplementary report, on statutory provisions with validity in Bophuthatswana which could be resorted to with a view to obstructing free and fair elections in the territory.

Was consulted by a member of the legal team of the African National Congress for expert advice on the question of "horizontal application" of a Bill of Rights. My recommendations found their way into the final draft of the 1993 Constitution.

Acted as Consultant of the South African Department of Justice in the period 1994-1996, charged inter alia with the training of judges, magistrates, public prosecutors and other officers in the Department in litigation under the new South African Constitution.
