

William P. Hicks

Regional Trial Counsel

Securities and Exchange Commission – Atlanta, Georgia

Mr. Hicks currently serves as the Regional Trial Counsel in the Atlanta Regional Office of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Mr. Hicks supervises the litigation program of the Commission's Atlanta office. Previously, Mr. Hicks served as the Assistant Regional Administrator/Enforcement, as an enforcement Branch Chief and as a Staff Attorney in the Commission's Miami Office. As Assistant Regional Administrator, Mr. Hicks supervised the enforcement program in the Commission's Miami Office. He supervised and conducted complex investigations involving, among other things, financial fraud, insider trading, stock manipulation, fraudulent offerings, broker-dealer and investment adviser practices and corporate accounting controls violations.

Mr. Hicks received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Dickinson College and a Juris Doctor Degree from Brooklyn Law School in 1978.